

FOREST SCHOOLS – MATLOCK BATH HOLY TRINITY CofE PRIMARY SCHOOL

BLINDFOLD ACTIVITIES RISK ASSESSMENT

To be used in conjunction with:

- General Welfare and Weather
- Site Specific Woodland Assessment

ASSESSOR: Chris Layhe-Humphreys

DATE: 09/23

REVIEW DATE: 09/24

	HAZARD	PERSONS AT RISK	EXISTING PREVENTATIVE MEASURES	PROBABILITY (P) 1-5	SEVERITY (S) 1-5	RATING (P) X (S) 1-25	WHAT MEASURES NEED TO BE TAKEN	BY WHO
1	Tying blindfold too tight	Group	Blindfolds will be made from soft materials. Ensure none of the group are allergic or have sensitivities to the materials used.	3	2	6	Leader will put blindfolds on initially. When individuals are ready in group staff to teach how to put on gently having consideration of others.	CLH/VP
2	Walking into branch or tree	Group	Activity area has its own risk assessment. Staff to liaise with other leaders about individuals who may not feel comfortable with this type of activity.	3	3	9	Group must be made aware of considerations for others and the dangers this type of activity may pose. Group to learn how to adapt their behaviours and decisions based on some controlled risk. Staff to ensure the group considers communication safety and physical contact.	CLH/VP
3	Trip/slip	Group & leaders	Activity area has its own risk assessment.	3	3	9	Ensure group are aware of watching out for slip/trip hazards before activity commences. Model and explain how to move around with due care and attention and communicating effectively.	CLH/VP
4	Cutting hand on a sharp item	Group		3	2	6	Explain and model for the group how to investigate items gently and carefully.	CLH/VP

“Let us run the race before us and never give up” Hebrews 12.1

FOREST SCHOOLS – MATLOCK BATH HOLY TRINITY CofE PRIMARY SCHOOL

							They will have other group members to help them investigate and stay safe. There can be rough/sharp parts and are advised to touch and feel slowly.
5	Bending over and banging head	Group	Activity area has its own risk assessment	3	3	9	Group must be made aware of considerations for others and the dangers this type of activity may pose. Group to learn how to adapt their behaviours and decisions based on some controlled risk.	CLH/VP

“Let us run the race before us and never give up” Hebrews 12.1